LGT Vestra strengthens Business Development team with new hire

- Michael Moss joins as Business Development Director

LGT Vestra LLP, the leading privately-owned wealth manager, today announced the appointment of Michael Moss as Business Development Director. Based in Bournemouth, Michael will be responsible for developing LGT Vestra's growing relationships with financial advisers in Southern England, the Channel Islands and internationally.

Michael joins LGT Vestra from Quilter Cheviot where he was a Business Development Director for five years, working with intermediaries across Southern England. Prior to Quilter Cheviot, Michael was a Business Consultant at Zurich Intermediary Group for six years. He is the Vice Chairman for the Hampshire & Dorset region of the Personal Finance Society, supporting the local financial adviser community.

Tony Allan, Partner and Head of Business Development at LGT Vestra, said:

“Michael's appointment reflects LGT Vestra's ambition to meet the growing demand from financial advisers looking to outsource their investment proposition for clients. I am delighted to welcome Michael to LGT Vestra and believe he will be a great addition to helping us continuously improve the service we offer to the adviser community.”
